

Benefits beyond winning:

- Reflect on your experiences and values
- Set educational and career goals
- Learn to write and speak persuasively about your aspirations
- Discover internship and job opportunities
- Meet current and future leaders in your field
- Get a head start on graduate or professional school applications

"I can truly say that through scholarship applications I've learned more about myself and how to write than in any class."

*-Andrew Bulovsky, Marshall Scholar, 2014;
Truman Finalist, 2013*

"I still talk to an attorney I met at my first Udall conference on a weekly basis. She has truly become a wonderful mentor to me."

-Martina Gast, Udall Scholar, 2006 and 2007

2013 and 2014 Beinecke Scholars:
Joanna Lawrence and Brontë Mansfield

Connecting students with award opportunities in:

- Research
- Service and leadership
- Environment
- Science, technology, engineering and mathematics
- Social sciences, humanities and the arts
- Post-graduate studies

Learn more about:

- Writing scholarship essays
- Preparing for interviews
- Requesting letters of recommendation
- Building scholarship credentials

Undergraduate Academic Awards Office

Dr. Julie Stubbs, Director
Deborah Cole, Asst. Director
Room 6, Ingraham Hall
1155 Observatory Drive
Madison, WI 53706
Phone: 608-265-2428

Email: awards@provost.wisc.edu
www.awards.advising.wisc.edu

National Scholarships and Campuswide Awards

WISCONSIN
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Undergraduate Academic Awards Office

2016 Goldwater Scholars: Bailey Flanigan, Hannah Mast, Idris Boukahil, Thejas Wesley

Seeking students who pursue:

- Academic excellence
- Research and internships
- Public service
- Leadership opportunities
- Cultural competence
- Mentors, and get to know their professors

"It's been great getting a completely different perspective on medicine through my public health studies at Cambridge University...Truly a year I'll never forget."

-Rishi Wadhera, Gates-Cambridge Scholar, 2008

"Applying for the Truman Scholarship challenged me to construct a personal narrative that was both honest and compelling. Constructing this story not only helped me to better understand myself, but it has also proven invaluable for applying for additional academic pursuits, jobs, and scholarships."

-Phoenix Rice-Johnson, Truman Scholar, 2015

NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Beinecke $32,000 to fund a terminal graduate degree in the arts, humanities or social sciences. Apply as a junior; must demonstrate financial need.

Barry M. Goldwater $7,500 for undergraduates planning a research career in math, science or engineering. Apply as a sophomore/junior.

Harry S. Truman $30,000 to fund graduate study in any field leading to a career in public service. Apply as a junior.

Udall Undergraduate Scholarship $7,000 for undergraduates planning an environmental career, or Native American/Alaskan Native undergraduates planning a career in tribal policy or tribal health care. Apply as a sophomore/junior.

POST-BACCALAUREATE STUDY IN THE UK, IRELAND or CHINA

Each scholarship covers tuition, room, board and stipend. Apply as a senior or recent graduate.

Churchill Scholarship One year of study in the sciences, technology, engineering or mathematics at Cambridge University.

Gates-Cambridge Scholarship One to four years of study in any field leading to a degree at Cambridge University.

Marshall Scholarship One to three years of study leading to a master's or doctoral degree in any field (some exceptions) at any university in the U.K.

Mitchell Scholarship One year of study at a university in Ireland or Northern Ireland.

Rhodes Scholarship One to three years of study leading to a degree in any field at Oxford University.

Schwarzman Scholarship One year Masters degree in public policy, economics and business, or international studies at Tsinghua University in Beijing, China.

2016 Truman Scholar Deshawn McKinney

CAMPUSWIDE AWARDS

Bascom Hill Society Scholarship One year of tuition, room and board for undergraduates with financial need and dedication to service/community. Apply as a sophomore/junior.

Theodore Herfurth and Teddy Kubly Awards for Initiative and Efficiency $2,000 for academic achievement, service, leadership and self-support and verbal expression. Apply as a senior.

Hilldale Research Fellowship $3,000 for student research in collaboration with UW faculty/staff. Must have junior/senior standing to apply.

Holstrom Environmental Scholarship $3,000 for student environmental research in collaboration with UW faculty/staff. Must have junior/senior standing to apply.

Meyerhoff Awards for Leadership, Service and Scholarship $1,000 for academic excellence, leadership and service. Apply as a junior/senior.

Sophomore Research Fellowship $2,500 for student research in collaboration with UW faculty/staff. Must have sophomore standing to apply.

University Book Store Academic Excellence Award $1,000 for outstanding independent projects completed at UW-Madison—a research paper in any field, or creative writing/arts project.